

Our Mission: To unite the goodwill and resources of the Wayne County community so that everyone can thrive.

Thank you for making the United Way of Wayne County 2017 Day of Caring a success!

Newark, N.Y. –The Annual United Way of Wayne County Day of Caring was held on May 10th. The volunteer event has been helping multiple non-profit agencies throughout Wayne County for more than 20 years. It is also one of the largest volunteer events, of its kind, in the county.

Thank you to the following businesses, because of your support and volunteer teams this event was possible: Berry Plastics; Catholic Charities of Wayne County; Community Bank; Exelon/Ginna NPP; Garlock Sealing Technologies; LNB; Reliant CCU; Wegmans; Dr Pepper Snapple. Our deepest appreciation and thanks also go to Wegmans of Newark for generously donating the breakfast and to the Alex Eligh Community Center and their staff for hosting the Day of Caring.

United Way of Wayne County Board President, Phil McCann (LNB), stated, “I give thanks to all of the individuals volunteering for this year’s Day of Caring, the employers who graciously allow their staff to participate and the corporate sponsors who help make the day a success. I am also very happy, and thankful, to note United Way of Wayne County is at 97% of its campaign goal due to the fantastic community support from many individuals and businesses again this year.”

Following the breakfast rally, the Day of Caring teams headed out to their assigned projects. The United Way is grateful to the many volunteers that provided their time, for this meaningful purpose which promotes the spirit and value of volunteerism. Approximately 850 volunteer hours were donated to help non-profit agencies.
